

ATTRACTIVE GOODS—M. GUTMAN & CO.

ATTRACTIVE GOODS!

COUPLED WITH Attractive Prices!

Is a combination usually irresistible. When we took stock January 1, we pushed profits aside and surrendered our store to the profit of our patrons. At every counter you stand before special values at special prices—that are passing privileges—quickly passing too. If you've delayed getting a Suit, or an Overcoat, until the prices went down, don't wait any longer; they are lower now than they have been for the last thirty years. We are able to make a bargain with you now, greatly to your own advantage.

ANTICIPATE SPRING!

Even while mercury is vacating around zero, and you can employ the advantages now at your command by seeing THE NEW things for 1895 BEFORE THE RUSH IS UPON US.

DAILY we are placing in our various departments Wool, Silk and Wash Dress Fabrics of the newest and most striking patterns, in both home and foreign goods, and the values we offer speak for themselves, and their merits you will recognize on sight. Marked down may mean little or much, as the case may be, but the line All-Wool Suitings, in 38, 42 and 50-inch goods, at 35c, 45c and 55c per yard respectively, that we have put on the special counter, were considered bargains at double the price. Another lot separate from this is Dark Novelty Checks, elegant for suit or skirt only, 50 inches wide at 69c, regular dollar goods. A line of new Plaids, bright combinations, just the thing for a waist, at 25c per yard. DON'T MISS THEM.

A LOT OF GENTS' WOOL SOCKS. A line we want to close out quick. Were 45c per pair, now 25c per pair.
LOOK AT BERBANTS, especially silk, black or colors, for dress, waist or trimming. They are being closed out almost regardless of value to clean up the stock.

DOWN AT CHARLESTON.

Wheeling People Much Interested in Legislative Doings.

THE FINLEY BANKRUPTCY BILL

Being Vigorously Opposed by the Chamber of Commerce Committee, and a Satisfactory Substitute Said to Have Been Agreed Upon—A Committee of the Builders' Exchange is at the Capital—The Trades Assembly Represented There, Too.

The closing days of the present session of the legislature are very interesting to Wheeling people. Several pieces of legislation that are of particular interest here are being considered or about to be considered, and the town has seldom been so largely represented in the legislative lobby.

The fight against the Finley bankruptcy bill, mention of which has already been made in these columns, seems to have devolved principally upon the Wheeling chamber of commerce. That body now has two representatives here, President Halliham Quarrier and Mr. John C. Riheldaffer. Yesterday afternoon Secretary Hazlett received a telegram from Mr. Quarrier, in which he said that a mutually satisfactory substitute for the Finley bill had been drawn up and that the chances for its success in the house are fairly bright. The chamber of commerce representatives are expected to return home to-day.

Mr. W. A. Wilson, president of the builders' exchange, and Mayor Caldwell and Mr. E. M. Holliday, of this city, are at Charleston, representing the exchange, and doing all possible for the passage of the builders' and mechanics' lien law, patterned after the Ohio law, which was recently introduced in the house by Mr. Smith, of the Ohio county delegation. They hope to have this measure passed at the present session. The measure has been described before; its principal feature is to afford the builder and mechanic protection and insure the payment of claims.

Mr. Richard Robertson, ex-president of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, and Mr. P. F. Ferrell, treasurer of the assembly, will figure in the legislative lobby this week and will remain through the remainder of the session to do all they can to push through several pieces of needed legislation in the interest of the workmen. These gentlemen will favor the Smith lien law and will try to have the legislature look with favor on the proposition to divide the state into four mine inspecting districts with an inspector for each, who must be a fully qualified civil engineer.

A REQUISITION WANTED

For the Assailants of the Two Non-Union Glassworkers.

The following from the Martin's Ferry Times of last evening will be in the nature of news here, for the reason that the facts were suppressed on this side of the river, as the authorities feared their publication would defeat the ends of justice—as it may yet. The press of Wheeling was fully informed of the intent to prosecute, but were asked not to mention it, in the hope that this would make the arrests easier. This all the papers here agreed to do. Says the Times, however:

Nothing that has occurred in this vicinity for years has created so much quiet public indignation, as has the following up and shooting at Mr. Humphrey recently and soon followed by the brutal and murderous assault at Wheeling upon the two men who were attempting to obey the process of a court before which they were ordered to appear as witnesses. This feeling is not confined to this side of the river, but is as great at Wheeling, where the last crime was committed, as it is here. Everybody feels that if such highway outrages are permitted to pass without proper punishment, life and property are in jeopardy. Law-abiding, order-loving people feel that the time has come when patience with such outrageous proceedings has ceased to be a virtue and that the guilty must be punished, even many of the Flints feel that way.

The Times usually gets onto everything of importance, and to-day it learned that citizens of Wheeling had filed a complaint before a justice on that side of the river against the four Martin's Ferry assailants of last Monday, and that already an application has been filed with the governor of West Virginia for a requisition on the governor of Ohio for their extradition, and as soon as the necessary papers arrive the arrests will follow. A warrant for William Moffatt has already been placed in the hands of the Wheeling officers to be served if he is found on that side of the river. In the meantime the question of jurisdiction of the Belmont county court in the matter of contempt proceedings is being carefully investigated. There are no new developments in the situation other than stated above.

A Popular Irish Drama.

"True Irish Hearts" is one of the best Irish dramas on the road, effectively acted and charmingly set with some of the most beautiful scenery ever shown in this city. A pretty story with a blending of pathos and humor judiciously interspersed with new songs and specialties and a well balanced company are what is promised for the production of this great play at the Grand next week. Mr. Ed Rowland, who is well known as an adept at the characterization of the Irish comedy, will assume the leading role, and as he is a good dancer and a clever singer he will no doubt make a hit.

Alex and porter are getting back into the favor they enjoyed twenty-five years ago.
